AFFECTED WORKER SUPPORT

Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA) requires certain employers to provide employees paid sick leave or expanded family and medical leave for specified reasons related to COVID-19. The Department of Labor’s (Department) Wage and Hour Division (WHD) administers and enforces the new law’s paid leave requirements. These provisions will apply from the effective date through December 31, 2020.

Chances in Unemployment Insurance Program as a result of the Federal CARES Act: The CARES Act provides increased benefits for workers collecting unemployment insurance. Federal CARES Act grants of up to $600 for claims effective March 27th until July 31st. Payments to eligible claimants will be made automatically in conjunction with their weekly claim.

Pandemic Unemployment Assistance: Affected workers, self-employed, 1099 or gig workers, who are not eligible under traditional unemployment insurance may be eligible under this new federal program.

Workforce Development Center provides a range of business services at no cost to businesses, including job placement, recruitment, labor market information and certified Business Services Specialists to assist in workforce planning.

CITY OF ALEXANDRIA
COVID-19 RESPONSE RESOURCES

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR BUSINESSES

U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) will provide a number of loan resources for small businesses to utilize when operating their business:

Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL): small business owners were able to apply for a loan advance, that will not have to be repaid, up to $10,000 designed to provide economic relief to businesses that are currently experiencing a temporary loss of revenue. SBA is currently accepting applications on a limited basis only to provide relief to U.S. agricultural businesses.

Paycheck Protection Program (PPP): provides a direct incentive for small businesses to keep their workers on payroll. SBA will forgive loans if all employees are kept on the payroll for eight weeks and at least 75% of the forgiven amount is used for payroll.

Employee Retention Payroll Tax Credit: provides a fully refundable 50% credit on the employer's share of payroll taxes on wages of up to $10,000 per employee.

Delayed Payment of Employer Payroll Credit: defers payment of employer payroll taxes through the end of this year until December 31, 2021 (50% due) and December 31, 2022 (remaining 50% due).

The Alexandria Small Business Development Center (SBDC) is here to help small businesses affected by the COVID-19 crisis.
